

Phase Three (Heightened Alert)

Singapore's Covid-19 measures will be gradually relaxed in two initial steps.

From June 14

	Social gatherings	Groups of up to five allowed; households allowed up to five distinct visitors per day.
	Attractions, cruises, museums, public libraries	Operating capacity raised to 50 per cent.
	Cinemas, MICE, live performances, spectator sport events, congregational and other worship activities	250 attendees allowed with pre-event testing, or up to 50 attendees without it. Still no unmasking, singing, or playing of wind instruments allowed.
	Marriage solemnisations	For external venues, up to 250 attendees with pre-event testing, or up to 50 without it. For those held at home, the household may have up to five visitors excluding the hosts, solemniser and vendors; or up to 10 total, whichever is higher.
	Personal services with unmasking (e.g. facials)	Allowed to resume.

From June 21*

	Dining in at F&B outlets	Allowed to resume, for groups of up to five.
	Wedding receptions	Allowed to resume, with up to 100 attendees with full pre-event testing, or 50 with pre-event testing for the wedding party only.
	Live performances	Unmasking, singing, or playing of wind instruments are allowed.
	Gyms, fitness studios, mask-off sports	Gyms and fitness studios may resume indoor mask-off sports activities, with safe distancing. Both indoor and outdoor sports classes capped at 30 persons, in groups of no more than five.
	In-person tuition, enrichment classes	Such classes for those aged 18 and below may resume with enhanced safe management measures. Higher-risk arts and culture classes, such as for singing and wind instruments, may resume.

* If the Covid-19 situation remains under control.
